

VISUAL ARTS ALLIANCE

Join Us For This Special Event

“I’m Having An Art Attack”

with the world's most fired-up
art historian

LEE SANDSTEAD

Sunday, March 7, 2010

2:00 p.m.

Fayetteville Technical Community College
Cumberland Hall Auditorium

FREE • FREE • FREE

The Visual Arts Alliance (VAA) is dedicated to building a vibrant and enduring visual arts community.

Alliance Members:

Cape Fear Studios, Fayetteville Art Guild,
Fayetteville Museum of Art, Olde Town Gallery
Arts Council of Fayetteville/Cumberland County,
Fayetteville Technical Community College,
Rosenthal Gallery Fayetteville State University,

Supported by a grant from

Lee has developed a national reputation as an exciting and dramatic speaker and has expressed his passion for art at over 50 major institutions including:

Harvard, Yale, New York University, The Smithsonian Institution and The Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Sandstead’s most recent art adventure has led him to host an Emmy-nominated, art-appreciation program called “Art Attack” for the Travel Channel. “Art Attack” takes viewers on an exciting journey through the world’s coolest art museums without pretentiousness or snobbery. In each episode Sandstead spotlights the top five must-see pieces at one iconic art space such as New York’s Metropolitan Museum of Art.